7000 S. F. CLERKS OUT ON STRIKE

Pickets Take Positions in Front of City's Biggest Department Stores

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Pickets took positions before dawn today in front of San Francisco's biggest Market Street department stores in a strike called for 7 a. m. by 7,000 members of the A. F. O. L. Retail Clerks' Union.

Carloads of other pickets visited others of the 35 stores affected by the strike action in an attempt to discourage building engineers from going to work. Police squad cars circulated throughout the downtown strike area.

The strike was called last night at a mass meeting of the union membership after failure of a peace conference called by Mayor Angelo J. Rossi.

It was set for 7 a. m., affecting 27 leading department stores and eight subsidiaries. Carmen Lucia was named head of the strike committee and Jack Baker, head of the picket committee.

Larry Vail, union secretary, said 24 unions which would be involved in a shutdown of the stores had pledged moral and financial support to the clerks.

Employers announced the stores would remain open for business as usual today. The announcement was made by 47 stores which are members of the San Francisco Retailers' Council, including those struck and several shoe firms.

Gravity of the situation was expressed in an order by Acting Police Chief Charles Skelly cancelling all vacations for policemen. As a precautionary measure he said that 100 additional men would be moved in from outlying districts to the strike area.

Between 6,000 and 7,000 unionists attended the strike meeting at which time they heard a report from a committee which met with the employers in yesterday's final conference.

The committee said that after four hours of bargaining the employers had rejected all union proposals including a modification of a disputed seniority-preferential hiring question.

C.P. & L.T. R.R. Built In '04

Passenger Tariff Canceled In 1936; None Transported Since 1921, Says Report

Only eight and one-half miles in length, extending from the historic old town of Camino to colorful Old Hange-town, the Camino, Placerville & Lake Tahoe Railroad has an interesting history that extends far beyond the bounds of its limited mileage. The main line was built by contract for the Placerville & Lake Tahoe Railroad Company, construction being started in the fall of 1903 and completed during 1904. Freight service began upon the completion of the line and passenger service was inaugurated in April, 1905, when a combination car was fitted up for the purpose, reports the California-Nevada Railroad Historical Society.

The Placerville & Lake Tahoe Railroad was affiliated with the El Dorado Lumber Company, which organization operated the railroad principally to haul its lumber from Camino to Placerville until operations were discontinued in 1909.

December 28, 1911, saw the Placerville & Lake Tahoe Railroad placed on the auction block for sale, a rather sad Christmas for the little line. The system, lock-stock-and-barrel, was purchased by the Camino, Placerville & Lake Tahoe Railroad Company, the present owner. The entire capital stock of the C. P. & L. T. R. R. was acquired in 1917 by the Michigan-California Lumber Company and this ownership has continued to the present time.

The passenger tariff was cancelled and service withdrawn in 1936, but there had been no active passenger traffic since 1921, just about the time of the automobile's advent. In the days when tickets were sold, however, there were regular Sunday excursion trains to Placerville, carrying the lumber company employees and the residents of Camino to witness the weekly baseball game. There being only the one combination car, several standard-gauge flat cars were "borrowed" for the train.

County Receives $3073 In July

Unemployment Funds Amount to $28,290 First Half of This Year

SACRAMENTO—California's distribution of unemployment compensation during the month of July amounted to $2,350,884.27, according to announcement made today by Carl L. Hyde, executive-director of the State Department of Employment.

Funds distributed in El Dorado County, amounted to $3,073.44 for July, and that same community has received a total of $28,290.66 since the department commenced payments this year.

Hyde said the July distribution brought the total amount paid claimants to July 31 to $12,241,381.88. A total of 1,286,031 checks were written up to that date, with 250,103 written during July alone.

Hyde said that since January 1, 1938, a total of 359,460 claims for benefits have been filed with the department of employment.

Of this total, 86,725 claims were found to be non-payable in accordance with terms of the California Unemployment Reserves Act. Also, a total of 74,789 persons have exhausted their benefits for the benefit year in which they filed, and will not be eligible to further benefits until fifty-two weeks succeeding the date their first check was due.

Hyde pointed out that with the non-payable claims, and the benefits exhausted, the department is now paying, or is about to pay on 197,946 claims for compensation.

Merriam Plans $30 Week Attack

Claims Relief to Aged Would Bring Disaster to California

By JOHN W. DUNLAP

United Press Staff Correspondent
SACRAMENTO, (AP)—Frank F. Merriam, seeking re-election as governor, today had sounded the "battle hymn" of the Republicans in the coming November elections by a vigorous attack on the proposed "$30 every Thursday" pension plan initiative.

Taking the fight directly to his Democratic opponent, State Senator Culbert Olson, generally considered "friendly" to the controversial pension proposal, Governor Merriam announced he was unqualifiedly opposed to it.

He termed it a fantastic scheme which would bring "financial disaster" in its wake and jeopardize present old age pensions and social security legislation.

His attack came in a Labor Day statement interpreted as opening the Republican general election campaign and possibly giving a keynote to other Republican candidates, all of whom remained quiet on the pension when it was raised as an issue in the primary.

"Stolen" Car Found Where Parked

An automobile owned by Manuel R. Armes, employee of the Placerville Fruit Growers Association, reported as stolen from its parking place near the fruit shed several days ago was found at that same parking place, intact, locked and apparently untouched. Following a wide broadcast of the "theft" the owner finally found his car exactly where he left it.

Officers gave the man a severe "bawling out" and stressed the importance of remembering where he leaves his property in the future.

Turner Planning Speedster With Prize Money

CLEVELAND, (AP)—Col. Roscoe Turner, the first man to win the Thompson Trophy twice, planned today to use his prize money to develop a speed plane "at least 100 miles faster" than the speedster in which he triumphed in the Steller event of the National Air Races.

In winning the Thompson race over the 300-mile course, Turner established a new record for the event with an average speed of 283 miles an hour. The old record was set by Michael Detroyat of France, in 1936 with 264 miles an hour.

He won $18,000 for finishing first, and $4000 more for breaking the record. He won the Thompson in 1934.

CITY TAX RATE SET AT $1.80

Council Issues Call For Bids For Addition to Filtration Plant

Placerville's city tax rate was set at $1.80 by the city council meeting Tuesday night for the regular September session. The rate, according to Mayor George E. Faugsted, represents a ten cent increase over last year's $1.70 rate, and is divided: $1.00 for the general and fire department funds, the balance levied to meet various bond retirement funds.

A call for bids was authorized published for the purpose of making additions and improvements to the city filtration plant and water system. Faugsted stated. The improvements consist mainly of an additional concrete storage tank at the plant which will double the capacity of filtered water storage and an alternate water main running from the plant to a point probably on Cedar Ravine.

Need for the improvements, Faugsted said, arises from the fact that at times water users are drawing the capacity load from the filters and the additional tank will allow for double the amount of storage when the load is somewhat slackened. The additional line will be put into immediate use and will not only supplement the present line but still give a sufficient supply to users within the city in case an emergency arises due to possible breakage or other cause to temporarily close the present main line.

The project, it was pointed out will represent an expenditure of approximately $20,000, 45 per cent of which will come from a direct federal grant, the balance to come from the regular city funds. The city, according to officials, has approximately $9,000 to expend on the proposed improvement program.

Other business coming before the city dads at Tuesday night's meeting included formally accepting the sewage disposal plant near the westerly city limits following official inspection by Engineer Harry N. Jenks and his recommendation to accept the newly completed disposal plant. The sewage line was accepted some time ago by official action of the council.

Members of the council Wednesday afternoon officially and formally inspected the plant which is now in operation and which has been in operation.

ROSEVILLE FAIR PLANS WESTERN EXHIBITION SEPTEMBER 10

ROSEVILLE — Roseville is to go western in a big way on Saturday, September 10, according to the request issued by the Placer County Fair Association. On that day local business men are expected to don their red shirts, 10-gallon hats, high boots and other western regalia to stimulate interest in the second annual county fair, horse show and rodeo, September 30 and October 1 and 2.

All residents of Roseville were urged by the committee to co-operate in the donning of western costumes and women were especially asked to assist by also donning western or cow girl garb.

The official decorations of the city for the fair and rodeo have been awarded to the Lodi Tent and Awning Co., again this year and the local business establishments are expected to begin to take on their festive appearance shortly after the date for donning cowboy garb. The streets of the city will be decorated with flags, bunting and rodeo decorations not later than September 10, the committee stated.

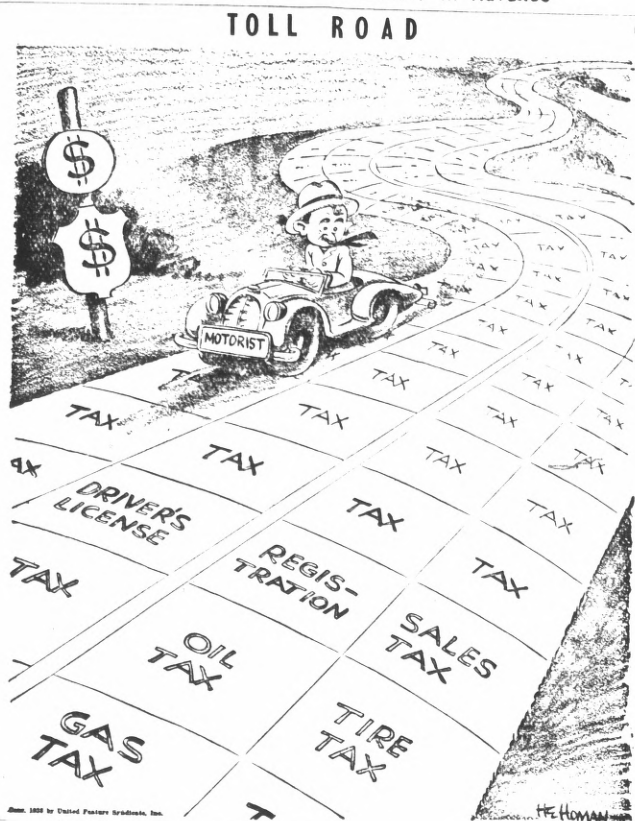

A large delegation of Roseville and Placer County Footprinters is being formed now to attend Footprinters International day at the State Fair on September 10, when the Placer County Fair, horse show and rodeo will be advertised, according to Hugh A. Linthicum, fair association president and general manager of this year's show.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Rice, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Loomis for the past month, are leaving soon for Colorado where Mr. Rice will clear up some business affairs. They plan to return to Placerville to make their permanent home. Mrs. Rice will be remembered by many friends as Mrs. Emily McHale.

STATE STUDIES BIDS FOR "SLANT OIL DRILLING"

LOS ANGELES, (U)—The State Lands Commission is studying three bids submitted for "slant drilling" into state-owned oil pools in the Huntington Beach area.

Highest bid was made by the Southwest Exploration Company which offered to drill on the entire 835-acre tract and give the state the highest oil royalties it has ever received.

The company said to represent a group of oil interests that had secured easements to "slant drill" from littoral

The LETTER BOX

September 2, 1938
Open letter to California State Fair and others.

Gentlemen:
The fact has come to the attention of the writer that a so-called Pony Express Race was held on Friday, September 2, 1938 for the purpose of a publicity stunt in connection with the California State Fair. Various radio and newspaper accounts of the "Race" state that the riders left Reno and came via Carson City to Sacramento and one radio announcement stated that the "Race" followed a course via Woodford's, Cook's Station, etc. Reno and other points mentioned (except Carson City) are not now, nor were they ever on the Pony Express Trail.

The real Pony Express Route started from St. Joseph, Missouri, and follows a course westward and in particular, after leaving Carson City, follows a route designated by Genoa, Lakeside, (South end of Lake Tahoe), Phillips, Strawberry, Kyburz, Placerville, Folsom, Mills and Sacramento.

The El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce in co-operation with other organizations along this route and also the Oregon Trails Memorial Association, have spent a considerable sum of money and much time informing the public of the real route of the Pony Express Trail.

On behalf of the people of El Dorado County we wish to protest vigorously the staging of a purported Pony Express race over any route other than the original, now known as U. S. Highway No. 50.

It is said that convenience and comfort to horses and riders were the prime factors in the routing of the present "stunt" and we cannot feel that our heritage should be plagiarized for such considerations. We were not consulted concerning the arrangements and we assure you that had we been consulted we could have made arrangements with riders who would have been glad to ride the one and only Pony Express Route, and thereby given the required publicity without having perpetrated a hoax upon the public.

If such "stunts" are permitted in the name of a Pony Express race over routes other than the original, we feel that the benefits of our publicity will be nullified and we will be damaged to the extent that the public will associate the other routes with Pony Express through erroneous publicity of such "stunts."

We feel that in justice and to correct any wrong impressions which may have been gained by the public, that the true facts should be published conspicuously.

We are greatly chagrined that officials of the California State Fair, Sacramento Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Post Office Department, the latter permitting special cachets over a fictitious route, should treat a sacred historic heritage so lightly as to dedicate the truth in the interest of fair

Our protest is sincere and we trust that we may have your co-operation in correcting the misinformation recently released and in the interest of fair

College Kids Place Second With Rebuilt "Jalopy"

DETROIT, (U)—The gold cup, one of the most coveted speed boat trophies, is lost to the United States for the first time since it was put into competition in 1904.

But the man who took it—Count Theo Di Montelera, a 35-year-old bachelor from Turin—isn't any happier than a pair of college kids who finished second in this most classic of all American speed boat races.

They were Dan Arena and Dan Foster of Oakland, California, who brought a patched-up "jalopy" called Miss Golden Gate here on an automobile which they sold in Detroit to provide them with gasoline and lodging.

They succeeded in finishing all three 30-mile heats while boats which cost thousands and thousands of dollars more than theirs were put out by motor trouble and accidents.

The injured Negro was William Witherspoon, 29, of 317½ K Street. Several stitches were taken in his head and he was sent home.

Police arrested Leroy Stevenson, 23, transient Negro. They said Stevenson, during an argument with Witherspoon, grabbed the ax from the yard of a nearby home and swung it on the injured man. Police did not learn how the argument began.

Playing An Ace

By Harry F. O'Neill

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

GERMANTOWN, Pa. (U.P.)—J. Donald Budge, the fellow with the five-alarm hair, will abandon his position as the No. 1 tennis player of the world this fall to turn professional and make more money than he has as an amateur.

Not a great deal more, perhaps, but some more.

When a sports king abdicates there is always a mad rush for the throne room, and Budge's departure won't be an exception. All the ranking players of the world will visualize themselves as his successor and start a flannel-panted stampede.

But only one will get there and if you will promise not to tell a soul I'll give you his name.

It is John Bromwich, a big, gangling, 19-year-old youngster with an unruly mop of hair and a smile as wide as a doubles court, who operates out of Sydney, Australia.

He can't miss taking charge when Budge turns from glory to gold, from cups to cash, and goes barnstorming about the country with Elly Vines in another of those "for the championship of the world" tours.

Bromwich proved that he was the Crown Prince in the final match of what probably will be remembered as the "Harold Le Bair Davis Cup challenge round." In this match he beat the only man who was a serious rival for the No. 2 slot in world rankings. I refer to Bobby Riggs of Chicago via California, and the man who walks like Charlie Chaplin.

The cup already was safe for this country when Bromwich and Riggs took the court, but the rivalry between them made it more than a mere exhibition. Both fought with all the skill at their command, and at the finish there was no question as to which one had the most.

Bromwich, who is the one and same Bromwich—who hits the ball right handed left-handed, and every other kind of handed, was superior to Riggs in every department of play. In baseline duels, he repeatedly out-steadied and out-lasted Bobby. His service was sharper, surer, and more accurate. Overhead he hit harder and with fewer errors, and his volleying was crisper and more angled. Even in stamina and court coverage, at which Riggs was supposed to be paramount now that Betsy Grant has developed the miseries, Bromwich had to yield nothing.

Bromwich's ascension to the championship will not be pleasing to the tennis fathers. Not one bit. Because the tennis fathers, the American ones in particular, are fanatical worshippers of form. Bromwich will give them the 10-ply, self-cocking, hand-turned jit-

Latter Day Saints Plan Organization

Tuesday night a large group of members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Kelly Longhurst on upper Main Street for the purpose of creating interest and formulating plans for the organization of a primary unit here in Placerville.

Present at the meeting, in addition to the local members, were Glenn Morris, president of the District Mission and Elder Hogan from Chico, headquarters for the district; Elder Sorenson, missionary and Miss Packman, primary instructor from Los Angeles. Elders Kent and Hartley, missionaries stationed here for the past several weeks, were also in attendance.

Woman Injured By Half Monkey-Bear

LOS ANGELES. (U.P.)—Mrs. James E. Davis, wife of the Los Angeles police chief, was bitten so severely she may lose one thumb in a battle with a Kinkajou, half monkey and half honey-bear, that her husband brought from Mexico.

Awakened by the animal crawling on her bed yesterday, she tried to replace it in its backyard cage. The Kinkajou sank its teeth into her left hand. She had to batter the animal into unconsciousness to break the hold.

Police shot the beast after Mrs. Davis was removed to the receiving hospital. Chief Davis was not at home.

Cattle Rustlers Tracked In Placer County

AUBURN—Cattle rustlers are growing bold again in Placer County and have been making inroads on herds in the Forest Hill section. Sheriff Elmer Gum reported. The sheriff said he had dispatched Deputy Sheriffs L. B. Allen and Thomas French to assist in tracking down the outlaws.

Constable Ernest Botts previously had notified the sheriff that he and a posse of Forest Hill ranchers were on the trail of the rustlers between Forest Hill and the Butcher ranch.

Botts also reported that officers had found the remains of a freshly killed beef. Sheriff Gum stated that he has received several recent complaints of rustling operations around Forest Hill.

School to Be for Poor Boys
KALISPEL, Mont. (U.P.)—A school for poor boys, never before attempted in this country, is taking shape near here. The aim, as outlined by Director E. R. Ormbee, will be to provide a thorough combination of class room and practical instruction with useful crafts to aid them in finding jobs.

Ormbee said that the school will be for boys, because he not only violates form but annihilates it every time he swings his bat.

65,000 Under-Privileged Tots Treated In Shrine Hospitals

The first Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children, was opened at Shreveport, La., on September 16, 1922. Since then, ten other hospitals and five mobile units have been established. During the intervening years approximately 65,000 under-privileged children have been discharged from the hospitals.

There is today a list of nearly 1,800 crippled children awaiting space in the hospitals, who will be entered as fast as room can be found for them.

The capacity of several of the hospitals has been increased 20 per cent since they were first opened. Two hospitals, St. Louis, Mo., and Philadelphia, Pa., have a capacity of 120 beds each; eight others, Shreveport, La., Twin Cities (Minneapolis and St. Paul), located at Minneapolis, Minn., San Francisco, Calif., Portland, Ore., Montreal, Canada, Springfield, Mass., Chicago Ill., and Greenville, S. C., have a capacity of sixty beds each. The hospital, located in Honolulu, accommodates twenty-six patients.

Three of the mobile units, Salt Lake City, Utah, Lexington, Ky., and Spokane, Wash., each care for twenty patients. The unit at Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, cares for twenty-five patients.

The turnover in these hospitals is not rapid. It requires an average of 117 days, during which time the patient must remain at the hospital under the eyes of the surgeon who performs the necessary operation.

The child finds in these hospitals a real home where he never feels that aloofness and phlegmatic attitude often complained of in the ordinary hospital. Not only is the boy or girl who undergoes treatment in a Shriners' hospital for crippled children, surrounded by loving and thoughtful care, but every effort is made to fit him, mentally, as well as physically, for the life that is before him. While recovering from the operation, his education is not neglected. The state boards of education where these hospitals are located, furnish teachers who are class and bedside instructors, so that no time is lost in the mental development of the child. Much of this instruction is given in play so that the progress of the child that have been used little or not at all, may be brought into normal action.

Democratically conducted, these hospitals have no restriction as to the color, religion, or the fraternal affiliations of the parents. All that is required is to establish the facts that the parents are unable to pay and that after examination by the surgeon, there is evidence that the child can be given relief.

The question is often asked, "How can so much service be rendered?" The answer is that there are some 400,000 Shriners in North America, and each one pays $2 a year. Some Shriners have become life members, which cost $60. When a membership is purchased, the Shriner is exempted from his annual $2 hospital assessment. With an average cost of $240 for the child's stay in a hospital, each Shriner who makes a contribution of $60 to the general fund has a one-fourth interest not only in relieving a child of pain and deformity, but in making his struggle for existence easier. Many individuals who are not Shriners and organizations consisting of persons other than Shriners, become contributors by purchasing voluntary permanent certificates at the cost of $60.

Each hospital is conducted by a local board of governors comprised of members of the Shrine, which works under the direction of the main board of trustees. This board consists of eleven members, of which W. Freeland Kendrick of Philadelphia is chairman. The members of the national and local boards serve without compensation.

The advisory board of surgeons comprises five of the most noted orthopaedic surgeons in North America. At the present time, these are: Dr. Michael Hoke, chairman, Atlanta, Ga.; Dr. Robert B. Osmond, Boston, Mass.; Dr. W. Edward Gallie, Toronto, Canada; Dr. Edwin W. Ryerson, Chicago, Ill.; and Dr. John C. Wilson, Los Angeles, Calif., all of whom give their Services for love of the crippled child. The surgeons recommended by this board and who are the actual operators are paid a normal salary for their services.

Two years ago Mr. Kendrick took upon himself the task of instituting a Shriners' Hospital Week for Crippled Children and, through the splendid support of a number of Potentates, raised the sum of $50,000, and Al Malakiah Temple of Los Angeles alone has subscribed $23,000 toward this fund.

Mr. Kendrick, in a recent report to the Shrine Imperial Council, spoke of the co-operation the Shrine had received from men's organizations, who not only purchased many voluntary permanent subscriptions, but supplied a quantity of linens, dresses, rompers, bibs, etc., to be used in the various Shrine hospitals.

The Mystic Shrine was also named beneficiary in a number of wills, including the Jacks Trust for the San Francisco Unit, which has an appraised valuation of $500,000; the Joseph Jacobs estate, $100,000; the General Ainsworth estate, Washington, D. C., $75,000; the Price estate, Reno, Nev., if the will is sustained, $200,000; the Fleming estate, $50,000.

Individual donors included L. W. Shodair, a resident of Los Angeles, who recently presented to the Shrine a block of property in Butte, Montana, with estimated value of $75,000. The late L. E. Adams, member of Lulu Temple, Philadelphia, made a Christmas present last December of $5,000. Hubert Dalton, member of Ziyara Temple of Utica, N. Y., made a gift of $5,000 each to the Honolulu unit to purchase an X-ray outfit. W. H. Morton of Bonni Temple, a resident of Salisbury, Md., sent a check for 1,000.

purpose and served very well.

The railroad operates 8.05 miles of main line with 0.9 miles of spur track. It has an operating agreement with the Southern Pacific Company covering about one mile of track in Placerville proper. It extends from an elevation of 1900 feet at Placerville to 3150 feet at Camino in 8 miles. There are grades of 3 1/2 per cent along the line which makes for quite a heavy pull. The track is equipped with 60 pound rail.

Following is the information concerning the two locomotives operated by the Camino, Placerville & Lake Tahoe Railroad as furnished from the official records of the railroad company:

Locomotive No. 1: A Shay-gear locomotive, weighs 60 tons, three trucks, oil burner, constructed by the Lima Locomotive Works in 1904, shop No. 885. It was constructed for and exhibited at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904 before being sold to the Placerville & Lake Tahoe Railroad. Being lighter than Locomotive No. 2, it is used principally during the winter months when soft track might occur.

Locomotive No. 2: A Shay-gear locomotive, weighs 65 tons, three trucks, oil burner, constructed by the Lima Locomotive Works in 1922, shop No. 3172. Before being purchased by the Camino, Placerville & Lake Tahoe Railroad, it had been used for 10 years in redwood logging service on the Little River Lumber Company at Bulwinkle, California, on which road it was assigned No. 4.

Rolling stock of the railroad consists of one flat car and one caboose which served, it is understood, as the combination car.

BAKERSFIELD, (U.P.)—Prince David Mdivani, the last of the famous "marrying Mdivani" princes, has purchased two boilers here to be used in drilling for oil on the 250 acres of mesa that he owns near Santa Barbara.

tion for several days, and extend an invitation to the public to visit the plant and see it in operation. The sewage system was recently completed by funds made possible by a local bond issue and by a direct federal grant at a total cost of approximately $39,000.

City officials and American Legion members, headed by Lunan Bathurst, are investigating the possibility of receiving additional federal money to be used in completing a proposed community auditorium on the site where several thousand dollars have already been expended on preliminary work such as laying concrete foundation. Bathurst, it was reported, is attempting to contact Harry L. Englebright, congressman from this district, to determine whether or not such funds are at the present time available or will be available in the near future.
